PUT PRICE ON DISTILLERIES

Bill Introduced Providing Pay for Sheriffs Who Break Up Illicit Plants.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) RALEIGH, N. C., February 12,-As "triton among minnows" was the consideration to-day in both branches of the Legislature of the bill for the enlargement of the capacity of the State hospitals for the insane to meet the needs of the State for years to come. It was a measure in which, to quote Representative Hershaw, of Celdwell, Republican leader on the floor of the House, "there should be no partisan lines;" and there were none. The bill was a substitute prepared by the joint Committee on Appropriations for the Bickett bill to an issue of $300,000 bonds for the care of the insane. It eliminated the bond feature, but provides for an appropriation of $125,000 annually for four years for increasing the capacity of the hospituls and the estblishment of colonies for epilepties; all the insane of the State to be cared for at the expense of the State, whether indigent or not; and the improvements to be made by a hospitul commission, whose expenditures are subject to review by the Governor and counsel of State. This substitute bill was reported in the House by Representative Bickett and in the Senate by Senator Webb, and passed both legislative bodies without a dissenting vote. Its passage in the House was by rollicall, Republicans and Democrats voting alike for the bill, the announcement of its passage unanimously being greeted by enthusiastic applause from the filor, lobbles and gallerles. Since the bill express only Committee on Appropriations for the lobbles and galleries. Since the bill carries appropriations it could pass only until to-morrow for the final reading.

Not Remove County-Seat Not Remove County-Seat

The House killed, so far as this session of the Legislature is concerned, the efforts for the removal of the Rockingham county seat from Wentworth to Reidsville by voting down the bill to authorize an election to be held in the county on the question. This leaves the county commissioners at liberty to proseed with the rebuilding of the courthouse at Wentworth, which was burnel house at Wentworth, which was burned

The House Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns this evening voted twelve to seven to report unfavor-ably the Senate bill to create Lee county out of parts of Moore and Chatham counties. The members from Moore and Chatham are both members of the committee and fought the bill bitterly, and this accounts for the un-favorable report, being evidently a courtesy to these members. A minority report will be submitted, however, and even the congents Committee.

A bill was introduced in the Senate to pay sheriffs of counties $29 for each illicit distillery seized. It is a notorious fact that at present sheriffs are not enforcing this feature of the Watts law, leaving this work ontirely with revenue officers.

The bill was by Senator Foraker.

The House has passed a joint resolusentation of North Carolina negroes at the Jamestown Exposition. The bill passed with very little opposi-tion, and is sure to pass the Senate, so that creditable representation of the North Carolina negroes at Jamestown

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

SPENCER, N. C., February 12.—J. A. Shoemaker, who for the past year, has been yardmaster and later assistant trainmaster of the Norwood branch of the Southern Rai...ay, has been appointed superintendent of the Spencer terminal yards. The territory is small, being bounded on the north by the Danville division, and on the south by the Spencer-Greenville division, but covers the largest yards on the Southern system. The office is a new one created last week, and brings a promotion to Mr. Shoemaker, who is a competent railroader.

PRODUCE MARKET

IS VERY ACTIVE

The receipts of country produce continue to be light. The frozen condition of the country shipping points exist off deliveries and as a consequence the commission men and wholesate dealers are getting very little stock from nearby points, to meet the demand. The supply of poultry was not sufficient yesterday and as a result prices on everything in the poultry line were stiff and a slight advance was noted. Dressed hogs also were higher, the best qualities on the small order bringing 8 to $1-2 cents per pound.

The receipts of eggs were a little larger than on Monday and prices remained unchanged. The small receipts of produce in general and the active demand enabled the commission men to "clean up floors" in the early afternoon. Florida vegetables are beginning to come to market in larger quantities but the demand being very active the high prices prevailing have Streets.

NEW YORK, February 12.—The wave of bitter cold which swept down on the city last night sent the mercury down almost to the zero mark. At least two deaths are known to have resulted from the cold in the city. Neither of the victims has been identified.

One was found lying in the street at De Graw and Hicks Streets, Brooklyn. His body was stiff. Another man was found dead in a hallway in First Avenue. He apparently had gone into the hallway to sleep and had been overcome. Several other persons who had been overcome by the cold were found unconscious in the streets, and were removed to hospitals. John Lehehan was found standing by a lamp post in First Avenue, his hands and feet frozen. He probably will die.

Dr. Charles Walsh, a deatist of Saugerties, N. Y., foll in front of the Waldorf-Astoria, and lay unconscious for more than an hour before he was found. His condition is serious.

John Arnieder was found unconscious lying on a snowbank in lower Seventia Avenue. He had fallen and broken his ankids.

HIGH CONCEPTION OF DUTY

Loved Liberty and Desired All Men to Be Free Under the American Flag.

BALTIMORE, MD., February 12.-Vice-President Fairbanks delivered an address on "Lincoln" at the Lincoln Day banquet in this city to-night. Mr. Fairbanks said in part;

The name of Lincoln rests upon our land as a sweet benediction.

Baltimore was not always so hospitable to the name of Abraham Lincoln as she is to-day. When the great emancipator went to Washington to assume the grave responsibilities of his high of the pinns of his journey were concled from this great city. But what a mighty change since then! Man of the People.

Abraham Lincoln was in the truest and best sense a man of the people. His sympathies were as broad as the needs of humanity. He was born and tutored amidst those hard conditions which develop that which is noblest and best in the human heart. From the humblest station he rose to the highest place among men. His birth was not huralded by pomp and ceremony. The entire world mourned at his bier. He had a high conception of public duty. He sought to exait his followman, to strongthen the foundations of American histitutions. He was inspired neither by the epith of valnglory nor bridge thought of self. He never-wavered in his allegiance to duty—duty to the over-livy to humanity and duty to the over-livy to humanity and duty to the over-livy in the sunsurpassed in all the ample history with which we are familiar.

Not Malice, But Charity. Not Malice, But Charity.
Lincoln laid down the golden rule of American politics, the rule he professed and the rule he practiced, the rule of which he was, indeed, the perfect incarnation—"Malice towards none; charity for all." This was a good code then; it is good now, and should guide us in the future. There never was an hour when observance of it was more essential than in the present. By it men should be governed in all of their relations with each other, particularly in the conference of the second of the second production of the second experience of the second production of the second experience of the secon

He declared that in a short time he would tell everything he knows about his case, and that when he does it will cause one of the greatest sensamis case, and that when he does it will cause one of the greatest sensations in army affairs in recent years. Burbank's engagement in 1993 to a prominent young society woman of Leavenworth precipitated a suit by his Filipino wife, Mrs. Concepción Vazques, of Valladelld, Occidental Negros, who formally filed her claims with the War Department to prevent the marriage. Two years ago Burbank returned to the Philippines with his regiment. Shortly after his arrival the Filipino woman filed an action against him in the civil courts for abandonment and non-support. Sho finally was granted a separation, but not a divorce, and Burbank was ordered to pay her $50 a month allmony. Later Burbank was tried by courtmartial and convicted of embezzling company funds and of offer conduct unbecoming an officer and a gentleman.
